Ms. Figueroa has worked for Internal Revenue Service for 22 years. For the past 16 years she has been with the IRS Taxpayer Advocate Service. She began her IRS career in Puerto Rico Accounts Management call site, serving individuals, businesses and international taxpayers residing in U.S. tax possessions and territories. She also worked in the Small Business/Self-Employed division's Centralized Insolvency Operation and Centralized Case Processing at the Philadelphia Campus. Since joining TAS in 2007 she has advocated for taxpayers in many ways: as an Intake Advocate, Case Advocate, and as an Account Technical Advisor with the Internal Technical Advisor Program. Ms. Figueroa served as the Taxpayer Advocate Group Manager in the Philadelphia West office for three years before moving over to the Local Taxpayer Advocate position in Newark Delaware in October 2019. In her supervisory position within the Taxpayer Advocate Service Ms. Figueroa is passionate about advocacy, protecting taxpayers' rights, and educating taxpayers in her region. She finds it rewarding to know that she can help make a difference every day in someone's life.
