2013 Delaware 8th-Monthly Withholding - Form W1A

FILE THE ENCLOSED EIGHTH MONTHLY RETURNS - Use the form above if you are required to file and pay your Delaware Withholding Tax for 2013 on an EIGHTH-MONTHLY basis. This means that within three working days following the end of any deposit or return period during which any payments subject to Delaware withholding tax are made, Form W1-A must be filed regardless of the amount of tax due. The eighth-monthly period ending dates are: 3rd, 7th, 11th, 15th, 19th, 22nd, 25th and the LAST DAY OF THE MONTH. If your payroll does not end on ones of these dates, use the next succeeding date. For example, for January 2013 the Friday dates are 6, 11, 18, and 25. You use the following coupons - 7th, 11th, 19th, and 25th. DO NOT FILE any other January returns. If the date falls on a weekend or holiday, the due date moves to the next business day.

MANDATORY ELECTRONIC FUNDS TRANSFER PROGRAM (EFT) - Any employer who was required under the Internal Revenue Code to deposit Federal employment taxes by Electronic Funds Transfer this past year, must file electronically for Delaware this upcoming year as well. If you met this requirement, you must continue filing electronically or face up to a $500 penalty. If you meet this requirement, complete the enclosed Electronic Funds Transfer Authorization Agreement and mail it to: PO Box 8911, Wilmington, DE 19899-8911. You may contact the EFT Department at (302) 577-8231 for further information. The EFT program is also available on a voluntary basis.

FILE YOUR ANNUAL RECONCILIATION RETURN - The Annual Reconciliation return is due February 28th following the taxable year and must be filed with copies of W-2s and/or 1099s to the address on the form. All employers who are required to file W-2s and 1099s on magnetic media for federal purposes are now required to file those returns on magnetic media for Delaware.

Specific Filing Instructions for 8th-Monthly Filers - Form W1A

1. Enter your Account Number in the space provided on the form below.
2. Select the correct tax period ending date. If your payroll date does not fall on the 3rd, 7th, 11th, 15th, 19th, 22nd, 25th or the last day of the month, use the next succeeding date to report and remit the tax withheld. Your Due Date will automatically appear in the Due On or Before box.
3. Enter your current business name and mailing address in the space marked Business Name and Mailing Address.
4. Check the Request for Change Box if you have changes to your Delaware Division of Revenue account information and are remitting a Request for Change form with this return.
5. Enter the amount of Delaware Income Tax Withheld during the period in the boxes provided on Line 1.
6. Enter the amount of tax you are sending with this return on Line 2. If this amount is different from Line 1, indicate the tax period that you are adjusting in the space provided below Line 2 and write an explanation on the back of the return. If you underpaid tax on a previous return, add that amount to Line 1 and remit the entire amount with this return. If you overpaid on a previous return, deduct that amount from Line 1 and remit the net amount with this return.

PLEASE NOTE: No credit or refund will be made to any employer if the employer was required and deducted Delaware withholding taxes from its employees. In such case, the employee must file a Delaware personal income tax return to claim the over-withheld income taxes. If the amount of the overpayment is more than what could reasonably be expected to be used throughout the rest of the calendar year, you may request a refund by filing a Claim For Revision form (Form 10949W8001). Contact our office at (302) 577-8779 for a claim form. You can also download the form from our web site at www.revenue.delaware.gov
