

Delaware Withholding Monthly and Quarterly Annual Reconciliation

The W-3 Annual Reconciliation Form must be filed on or before the last day of February. It must be accompanied by a duplicate of each statement of Income Tax Withheld (Federal Form W-2 and/or Form 1099) issued to employees during the year.

Line-by-Line Instructions

Line 1 - Enter the total amount of the Delaware wages.
Line 2 - Enter the total number of W-2s and/or 1099s.

Line 3 - Add the amount of Delaware Income Tax Withheld (per W-2s and/or 1099s), and compare that amount to the amount withheld from the back of this return. These amounts must equal, if they do not, determine where the error occurred and make any necessary correction(s) before filing this reconciliation. Enter the total corrected Delaware Income Tax withheld.

Line 4 - Enter the amount of Tax Paid for this year.

Line 5 - Subtract Line 4 from Line 3. If Line 4 is greater than Line 3, then an overpayment exists and you should check the Overpayment box. Be sure to attach an explanation of how the overpayment occurred. DO NOT take a credit for any overpayment on your next return. An overpayment existing at the end of the calendar year cannot be carried over to the next calendar year. If Line 3 is less than Line 4, an Underpayment exists and you must check the Balance Due box. Remit the total Amount Due with this return.

Section 537 of Title 30 of the Delaware code provides that no credit or refund will be made to any employer if the employer was required and deducted Delaware withholding taxes from its employees. In such cases the employee must file a Delaware personal income tax return to claim the overwithheld income taxes.

All employers who are required to file W-2's and 1099's electronically for federal purposes are now required to file those returns electronically for Delaware. Failure to comply will result in penalties equal to one-half the amounts specified in the Internal Revenue Code for the same requirement. Please call (302) 577-8779 or refer to Technical Information Memorandum 2001-4 for any questions on the magnetic media requirements and the new penalties.
